

SAVE THE DATE: Europe's new rules for Green Finance

18th of January – 18:00h - Dompfarrsaal: Domplatz 12, 60311 Frankfurt am Main

Europe is designing new rules for Green and sustainable finance. The European Parliament's report on Sustainable Finance is currently being prepared under Green party rapporteurship. Join this event to discuss the report's first draft directly with the rapporteur and MEP Prof. Molly Scott Cato. Contribute your ideas together with high profile experts from finance, politics and civil society.

Speakers and Panellists:

- MEP Prof. Molly Scott Cato, rapporteur of the Greens/EFA group of the European Parliament for the Report on Sustainable Finance
- Tarek Al-Wazir, Minister for the Economy of Hessen
- Karin Dohm, Managing Director (Regulatory Affairs) at Deutsche Bank
- Antje Schneeweiß, Südwind Institut
- Further high profile practitioners, politicians and civil society representatives
- MEP Sven Giegold, moderation

For whom? Experts, practitioners of banking, insurance and asset management, researchers, civil society representatives and everyone who is interested. The event will be held in English.

Registration: You are welcome to register until January 14th at ch.keim@bistumlimburg.de, indicating your name and organisation. This allows us to provide you with the draft report and more supporting documents in advance.

The official invitation with confirmed speakers will be provided in the first days of January.
